Nestled in the serene hills of Tintenbar, this stunning property offers a unique blend of privacy, luxury, and expansive views that stretch across the countryside. Set on a generous 4,747m² block with town water, this unique property is set within a lush tropical garden, offering a Pebble Crete pool and enchanting walkways that invite you to explore and unwind. This spacious home features 4 bedrooms, master with office space, walk in robe and ensuite, 2 additional bathrooms and a large library, making it ideal for shared living arrangements, blended families or as an extra income. The open plan design is complemented by a French country-style kitchen with solid oak cabinet and stone benchtops, rich timber features, and high raked ceilings that lead to the large undercover timber deck taking in the amazing views. This unique property boasts a pool house, workshop, spacious storeroom beneath the house and a functional woodshed complete with a log splitter, perfect for keeping the two open fireplaces roaring during the winter months. The expansive outdoor area includes a vegetable patch and ample space for an orchard, offering the ideal setting for sustainable living. Ideally located, this home is central to the vibrant towns of Bangalow, Lennox Head, Byron Bay, and Ballina, offering the perfect balance of tranquility and convenience. Don't miss this rare opportunity to own a slice of paradise in one of Tintenbar's most sought-after areas. Call today for a private inspection.
