Severn River Frontage Ballandean

How does a nice quiet 30 acre property with a 500 metre frontage to the Severn River sound? Located in the famous wine country at Ballandean, you will love the setting and the ambiance. The Western Red Cedar cottage has front and rear decks, two bedrooms (main with built-ins), living area with an open fireplace and ceiling fan, dining area, kitchen with a gas stove, bathroom/laundry combined with shower over the bath plus vanity, separate WC, gas hot water, plasterboard interior walls, also included - washing machine, microwave & fridge. A nice area of open country, plus natural timber for the deer and other wildlife to shelter in. Throw a line into the river and catch yourself a nice cod. For sale at $675,000. Inspection by appointment.
