Find your Karma at Karangi

Located in a desirable country setting with plenty of space for the extended family is this elevated two storey home with separate one bedroom granny flat, a four-vehicle carport and an extra height double garage for larger vehicles, plus a sizable lock-up workshop.

Superb views over the valley towards the ranges and across Karangi Dam to the lush green forested hillside, are a standout feature of this small acreage property in the beautiful Orara Valley, situated only 10 minutes' drive from the Coffs Harbour CBD.

The main house comprises a ground floor area with kitchen, dining/family space, one bedroom, laundry and bathroom. Upstairs there are two further bedrooms, an office nook and a vast open plan living area opening out to an equally generous covered outdoor entertaining deck and mesmerising views!

The cosy one-bedroom flat has an east facing verandah with lovely views and is separated from the main house by the generously sized undercover carport. This space has been useful for large family get-togethers with the benefit of a built-in barbecue and fireplace out the back.

This property represents the perfect opportunity for a comfortable extended family living arrangement. Alternatively, rent one dwelling and live in the other.

The location is within a short walk to the bus stop for local and city schools, with two public schools within a few minutes' drive.

Council waste bin collection is at the entry.
