Under Application!

Welcome to 14 Lime Street! This wonderful modern one-bedroom apartment, with its open-plan layout, holds delightful surprises that extend beyond your first impression. The kitchen is generously proportioned to suit the space and features an induction cooktop and a variety of storage options. While there's designated space for both living and dining areas at the front of the unit, the versatility of the space means it can easily be transformed to suit any purpose you desire! The front of the apartment is adorned with large bi-fold windows, flooding the space with natural light. Separating the lounge from the bedroom, a cleverly designed plant storage cupboard doubles as bike storage. Tucked away discreetly in the rear corner are the laundry facilities, along with extra storage and shelving. In addition to an undercover parking bay, there's also external storage available. Residing on the ground floor enhances the apartment's convenience, offering easy access and simplifying daily living. Located in the delightful area of North Fremantle, this apartment offers easy access to train stations and the bridge leading to Leighton Beach. Plus, both the beach and the riverfront are just a short stroll away! This property is available to lease from 8th July for a minimum 12 month lease preferred. Applications accepted through 2Apply
