A considerable courtyard apartment

A ground floor find of great value and substance, this prized three bedroom two bathroom apartment is supremely private inside and out. Warm and inviting with its timber floors, this appealing abode enjoys a relaxed open plan living and dining area with a well equipped corner kitchen featuring quality appliances and dishwasher. There are three large bedrooms all with built in robes (main with ensuite) and a second bathroom with a bath. The decked and covered courtyard is your space to entertain guests in peace and privacy. Enjoying gated courtyard access through to the delightful communal gardens, this easy access home provides reverse cycle air conditioning, security intercom and auto gates to secure undercover parking with a storage cage behind. In this quiet residential avenue with trams at either end, around the corner from Bailey Avenue Park, a short walk to Glenferrie Road's wonderful wealth of cafes, restaurants and services, the Malvern Central shopping hub and Union Street Gardens, while moments to renowned High Street and both Armadale and Malvern stations.
