Arnold is located in the core area of Box Hill, Melbourne, Australia. It was created by Australia's top local design management and planning team. After countless days and nights of planning, it will dedicate to you a classic city that combines classic and fashion, practicality and art.

Light and spacious on the inside with generous windows and floor-to-ceiling glass exterior entrances, combined with clever positioning and design mean that your vistas can take you away from the intensity of city life. Despite being in the centre of the action, you'll have access to a calm, comforting point of view.

What a blessing to live in Arnold! You can enjoy a wealth of food within a few minutes' walk, whether it is Chinese cuisine or Asian flavor; not only Western food coffee, but also snacks, cooked food, Vegetarian food and various special private kitchen dishes. So many foods full of hometown flavor not only satisfy the appetite of Chinese immigrants, but also make up for the homesickness of wandering overseas.

Located in the largest medical cluster center in the east of Melbourne, Arnold is surrounded by the largest Box Hill Hospital, clinic, western pharmacy, traditional Chinese medicine, rehabilitation, massage and other comprehensive health care institutions in the east. There are also public and private welfare insurance agencies such as Centrelink, Medibank, and Bupa.

Arnold is surrounded by a full range of public and private institutions ranging from preschool education, primary and secondary universities, Australia's largest vocational school, professional skills, senior schools, libraries, etc., covering almost all kinds of educational resources that people need throughout their lives.

Australia's top extra-curricular strengthening brands NORTH SHOREQS, QS, Xinjinshan, etc. have set up headquarters and branches around Arnold. The children who come out of here are all the top picks in the previous college entrance examinations and the best ones who dominate the top class.
