Built on the site of one of Melbourne's oldest and most renowned mansions, New Charsfield integrates the best of old and new. The contemporary, charming tower blends traditional appeal and modern luxury, uniting timeless features from the 1889 Hotel Charsfield, with present-day sophistication. The grand tree lined boulevards extend North into the CBD and South into some of the city's most loved inner suburbs. Close to important business districts, the area is also great for shopping and relaxing by major parks and gardens with the Domain, Royal Botanic Gardens and Albert Park all within walking distance. The area is incredibly bicycle friendly with major roads fitted with specific bike lanes, giving residents and visitors an active and sustainable mobility. AMENITIES INCLUDE: An elegantly landscaped garden terrace A resident's lounge with open fireplace Private dining room with equipped kitchen A stocked library room for quiet contemplation Floor to ceiling windows maximise the warmth and natural light to residence with a seamless interior to exterior flow.
