Light-filled apartment perfectly situated for modern living

Discover the perfect blend of style and convenience in this light-filled ground floor apartment, designed for modern living. Featuring two generous bedrooms, a renovated kitchen, and a beautifully updated bathroom, along with brand-new floating timber floors throughout, you will feel right at home from the moment you step inside.

Large windows and sliding glass doors invite an abundance of natural light into the open-plan space, enhancing the warmth of both the kitchen and living areas. The layout flows seamlessly to an easily accessible north facing terrace, perfect for outdoor relaxation. Additionally, the property includes a lock-up single garage with ample storage space, and is only moments' walk to cafes, shops, transport and schools, ensuring that it truly has it all
