Stylish Urban Sanctuary With Macleay St And Harbour At Your Doorstep

Set on the first floor of iconic c1959 building 'Gweedore', this 1-bedroom apartment approx. 55sqm presents an excellent opportunity at the coveted Northern end of Potts Point. High ceilings and timber floors frame an elegant open-plan living and dining space, with a sunlit kitchen offset, while the spacious bedroom features ensuite bathroom. Embracing a breezy sense of interior flow, both the living space and bedroom open to an apartment-wide sunroom with leafy street outlook, enabling a year-round alfresco experience. With the acclaimed dining and café scenes of Macleay St and Challis Ave at your doorstep, easy CBD/city access and the stunning harbourfronts of Elizabeth Bay and Woollahooloo just minutes away, this unique apartment is positioned as the perfect urban retreat for owner-occupiers and investors alike.
