Luxury Living in the Portofino Complex in the Heart of Sandringham

Wander through the lovely leafy atrium of the iconic Portofino complex, past the heated pool, spa, sauna and gym and up the lift to the second floor and imagine impressing your dinner party guests when you secure this wonderful spacious one bedroom apartment with great views over the Bay as far as Mornington Peninsula.

In a first-class location, only a stroll to Sandringham Village, experience peace, privacy and security with a deluxe resort lifestyle with impressive open spaces. Glorious light and warmth streams into the open plan living and dining area and through to the luxurious kitchen appointed with Miele and Caesar stone with large kitchen bench creating another option for casual social interactions.

Luxurious features continue throughout with European Oak parquetry and lush carpeting for the bedroom, the master suite splendid with an ensuite off a very convenient fitted dressing room and ducted heating and cooling throughout. Extra powder room for guests and a full laundry.

The complex also boasts high security via CCTV, video intercom and elevator entry from your single car space and oversized powered storage facility in the basement garage and your guests will be further impressed with onsite parking for them too. Your world of peaceful comfort is just a step away from beachside ambles, café mornings and boutique browsing and if you so desire, with bus stop to Southland on your doorstep and five-minute walk for a train to the city.
