Heritage Charm in Ansonia Woolstore

Dimitri Cassidy from The Ray White Collective presents this heritage home, immaculately renovated, bespoke kitchen the polished hardwood floors, original timber beams and exposed brick wall create the perfect backdrop for the home of your dreams. Nestled on the top floor of the complex in the Ansonia Woolstore, drenched in natural light, creating a warm and welcoming atmosphere.

Everyone knows how iconic the Teneriffe Woolstore's are, but not everyone gets the chance to know what it's like to live in one. Well, today is your chance to seize this opportunity while it lasts! It is with great excitement that we introduce this beautiful home to you.

This property boasts so many fantastic features, it's hard to know where to start. The fact that this is a top-floor, loft-style apartment not only means that you get that "New York loft" feeling, but you get high ceilings & the signature Woolstore beams that are desired by so many. Upon entering, you will be drawn to the stunning original hardwood floors in the living & dining area.

The property offers three generously sized bedrooms with soaring ceilings and split-system air-conditioning for year-round comfort. On the top floor, you will find the loft-style master suite offering a walk-in wardrobe and private bathroom. The kitchen is the heart of the home and no expense has been spared on this incredible renovation, a large stone kitchen island thoughtfully designed to house a wine fridge or two, perfect for entertaining! The kitchen's intelligent design means you will never be short of storage options and the chef's pantry is just chef's kiss! Stunning cabinetry and finishings complete your kitchen with high-end, European appliances and gas cooktop.
