On the very edge of Chapel Street with its iconic and eclectic mix of retail shopping nightlife and cafe culture, this superb residential complex provides everything one could desire for individual living in an inspired precinct for the fortunate person. Generous sizing throughout, this beautifully transformed C.1890's large two storey 1 bedroom townhouse has a rich and diverse history and is complimented by its decorative leadlight windows, polished floorboards and leafy courtyard which make this the ideal place to live. There are many other features which include a spacious upstairs open plan bedroom with built in robes, ensuite bathroom with contemporary toning with separate shower and washing machine facilities. The Kitchen with its orange glass splashback, stainless steel dishwasher comes with a meals area. The lounge room with floor to ceiling double glass doors leads you to the front courtyard. Reverse cycle heating and cooling with security parking.
