North Facing Art Deco apartment on Sought after Eastern Hill

This charming apartment occupies a first-floor position in the boutique Art Deco Braemar building on Manly's sought-after Eastern Hill. It seamlessly blends the vibrant features of the 1930s with a spacious, house-like layout and stunning views of Manly Beach. Enjoy the northerly sunshine while watching the surf from the dining room or home office, or relax on the shared balcony. In the evening, unwind in the cozy lounge with an ornamental fireplace before retiring to one of the two generous bedrooms. Just a two-minute walk to the beach and five minutes to the wharf, this apartment offers the ultimate cosmopolitan lifestyle.

- High ornate ceilings, leadlight windows, picture rails, and plate racks
- Lounge with ornamental fireplace and dining room/home office
- Eat-in kitchen with gas cooking and access to a shared balcony
- Spectacular views of Manly Beach, including sand, surf, and horizon
- Generous bedrooms with mirrored built-in robes and bay windows
- Light-filled bathroom, internal laundry, and security entrance
- Walk to Manly Beach, Wharf, shops, cafes, restaurants, and nightlife
