Embrace the ultimate Northern Beaches lifestyle with this light-filled, two-bedroom apartment, perfectly positioned to capture the sunrise, afternoon light, and evening sunsets. With windows on three sides, the apartment offers a breezy, sunlit atmosphere, making it an ideal choice for year-round comfort and enjoyment. The open-plan design flows effortlessly from the generous living room into the dining area and onto a well-appointed kitchen, perfect for relaxed entertaining or quiet evenings at home. Each space extends seamlessly to a spacious terrace, offering an ideal spot for alfresco dining with treetop views. Both bedrooms are generously sized and include built-in wardrobes, ensuring ample storage, with each including private terrace with leafy palm tree outlooks. The two bathrooms, with the main bathroom equipped with internal laundry facilities, combining convenience with modern updates. Completing this appealing package is a secure parking space and a dedicated storage unit, ideal for surfboards, bikes, or seasonal gear—making it a great find for beach enthusiasts. This apartment is perfect for those seeking a vibrant yet relaxed lifestyle. With level access to the beach, shops, and local cafés, it offers the convenience of coastal living at its finest. It's an ideal choice for downsizers looking for a manageable yet spacious home that prioritizes comfort and ease. Young families, too, will appreciate the close-knit community and the ease of accessing daily essentials, all while enjoying a sunlit, breezy home just steps from Queenscliff Beach. This residence truly embodies the Northern Beaches lifestyle, blending accessibility with charm and community.
