Vibrant split-level apartment of outstanding convenience

Displaying its value as a stylish first home or investment, this wonderful apartment is located for absolute convenience on the fringe of the city.

It has a unique split-level layout, presenting living space accompanied by a granite-topped kitchen providing substantial storage. To give you a head-start with appliances, the reverse-cycle air conditioning was installed in Q2 2024 and is under warranty, as is the new combined washing machine/dryer; the fridge can also be included. Both levels offer a balcony retreat, overlooking the flow of pedestrians walking along scenic Carlton Street. This is an established building offering swipe entry, lifts and access to gym facilities and a common rooftop area.

Located between University of Sydney and Central Station, this address rewards with a connected lifestyle placed close to Central Park and the legendary Spice Alley, Broadway Shopping Centre, city parks and Surry Hills.
