Spring Square is located at the northern end of Bankstown's commercial precinct and positioned perfectly to enjoy all this thriving region has to offer. It will create a new benchmark for integrated living, encompassing everything you need for a life more prosperous.

Bankstown has everything you'd expect and more from a thriving metropolis. As the most significant commercial hub of South West Sydney, it's well connected with public transport and roads like the M5 and Hume Highway can take you north, south, east and west with ease. It bustles along with a distinct charm that is overflowing with high end amenity, great recreational spaces and a lively food and entertainment scene.

Now, a bright new future is on the horizon, with plans well underway that will grow and breathe new life into this established economic hub.
