From Up On High

Elevated above its surroundings, this remarkable property boasts some of the most breathtaking views in Bicheno.

From the wide vistas of Diamond Island and Redbill Beach to Peggy's Point and Whalers Lookout, the scenery is simply unparalleled. Whether you're checking the surf at Redbill Beach, watching for whitecaps to plan a day on the water, or simply soaking in the coastal beauty, this home offers a vantage point like no other.

Designed for relaxed coastal living, the home spans three levels, blending functionality with style and maximizing those incredible views.

Lower Level:

- The heart of the home, featuring an open-plan kitchen, dining, and lounge area with soaring raked ceilings
- Sliding door access to the deck, where you can entertain, unwind, and savour the panoramic outlook

Middle Level:

- Designed for family or guests, with two additional bedrooms and a main bathroom
- Convenient hideaway laundry and access to the backyard

Upper Level:

- The master suite, complete with a walk-in robe, ensuite and more of those stunning views

Outside:

- A tastefully landscaped garden, low-maintenance for ease of living or holiday stays
- Newly laid exposed aggregate concrete, offering ample parking options for vehicles, boats, or caravans
- A single-car garage, workshop, and storage space located underneath the home

This property perfectly balances practicality with lifestyle, making it ideal as a permanent residence, holiday retreat, or investment. With its commanding position and incredible views, 1/146 Tasman Highway is a unique opportunity to own a piece of Bicheno's coastal charm.
