Great Opportunity to Purchase a First Home or Investment

This low maintenance unit is one of three residences on the block and is ready to welcome new owners. The quality rendered brick home was built in 2009 - The home is open plan, with the kitchen and lounge-dining making up the central aspect of the home which flows through glass sliding doors to the entertainment deck offering stunning views over Riverside towards the mountain range. The full-sized kitchen has plenty of bench and cupboard space, dishwasher and breakfast bar. Neutral tones and natural light throughout and new window furnishings have been installed. Two spacious bedrooms with built in robes- with dual access from the main bedroom to the bathroom. Two single garages, internal access is available from the upper single car garage- both offering remote control doors.

Only a short walk to schools and shops and less than a ten minute commute to Launceston CBD with bus stops close by.
