

10 Harker Street, Healesville, Vic 3777

Professionals

Sold House

Wednesday, 8 January 2025

10 Harker Street, Healesville, Vic 3777

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 1

Area: 500 m2

Type: House

Lindsay Ryan
0439696809

Jack Smith
0439460844

$730,000

With all the charm of a country cottage and all the comfort of a modern home, this renovated abode is one beautifully presented haven with a lifestyle you will love in the heart of Healesville. Sophisticated features harmonise with character elements and a refined layout that celebrates indoor-outdoor living. Easy care flooring, timber accents, and a wood fire add welcoming warmth, sleek designs maximise the free flow between spaces, and every aspect combines to create a home that is simply, yet perfectly, "home". The open plan living area caters for cosy snuggles on the couch, Valley-inspired meals crafted in the kitchen and devoured in the meals, and spills outdoors to the covered patio. Three bedrooms (or two and a study) are retreats for relaxation, gorgeously styled in elegant tones and with plush carpet underfoot. The central bathroom elevates your daily routine to be a sumptuous experience with contrasting black fittings, while the powder room, Euro-laundry, and reverse cycle air conditioning add streamlined convenience. The covered alfresco is the place to unwind, cocooned by the backyard with a blank canvas opportunity to add your own plants or enjoy the low maintenance it provides. A shed with a roller door, off street parking, gate access, and fences all around add security for your vehicles and more. Beyond the gate, the vibrant and alluring lifestyle of Healesville awaits. Locals love the location for its café culture, eclectic shops, nature attractions, and family friendly amenities. In about five minutes you can walk to Saint Brigid's and Healesville Primary Schools, and in about 10 minutes you can walk to the Main Street or drive there in about two minutes to pick up groceries, a bite to eat, a local beverage, or wander the shops and parks at your leisure. This home will charm you with all its character and comfort, and its location will delight you with the convenience and lifestyle it offers.