THE "JEWEL" OF RYLSTONE

Rarely do you find such an immaculate home so close to the middle of the village of Rylstone. Built in the mid 1940s this large, solid cement rendered family home features ample accommodation for a big family. Featuring 3 good sized bedrooms, all with built ins, and the main located in privacy at the back of the house with an en suite and a mirrored robe. The front of the house a large lounge room alongside a sun drenched, slate covered semi enclosed alfresco area. There's an additional new living room at the rear with air conditioning and fireplace plus an area for the kids.

There's a modern large kitchen, with gas cooker, large pantry and dishwasher as well as ample storage throughout the home. Heating is well covered with a large wood combustion heater as well as a reverse cycle air conditioner. With a separate dining room and large laundry this home has all you need for even the most fastidious of buyers. The large allotment of 1950m² is fully fenced, with a large yard front and back with shady trees.

It doesn't stop there! Outside offers another covered entertainment area and decked and heated swimming pool, plus a single lock up garage with rear lane access and the Cudgegong River only a minutes walk from your front yard, this home has the lot !

Inspection is a must for this most outstanding home and location.
