Prime Location In Park Street

Located on a substantial corner block totalling approximately 908m², this property in Park Street is brimming with possibilities. Partially renovated, there are still a few projects to finish off around the home but the potential to value add and put your own stamp on this home are ready for the taking.

Plus if you love your sport or the kids need to practice there netball, football or even BMX skills, one of the best sporting venues in Portland, Alexandra Park, is right across the road.

New flooring and blinds add a modern appeal when you enter the home as its flows through to the lounge and recently renovated kitchen. The kitchen has been updated with modern tones and the addition of a new Coonara gas log fire make the living areas complete.

There are 3 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms - one of the bathrooms is brand new and connects to one of the bedrooms whilst the second bathroom does need some attention.

An enclosed undercover area equipped with a built in bar is perfect for those summer BBQ's.

For those who love their toys, this property is a dream come true thanks to a 13m x 6m shed with power, concrete floor & pot belly easily accessed via Robins Avenue plus an additional carport.

Solar panels and new hot water service are also provided.

Additionally, the home is located only minutes from schools and the CBD.

Don't miss out on the opportunity to make 10 Park Street your first home, family home or investment.
