Iconic stone homestead set on 1.948ha (approx 5 acres).

Imagine waking up every morning to a view that stretches beyond the horizon, where history whispers through every stone and timber.

Once the beloved home of the Paech family, this Iconic stone homestead invites you into a world where character and charm meet breathtaking beauty. Perched in an elevated position, the views of rolling farmland are more than scenery-they're a daily reminder of life's simple, enduring pleasures.

Wrapped in large return verandahs, the main home welcomes you with six spacious rooms. A central hallway with soaring ceilings leads you through spaces filled with warmth and possibility. There's a generous double bedroom with a walk-in robe, a dine-in kitchen that blends nostalgia and modern convenience. The main bathroom, offers a retreat where you can breathe and unwind.

The flexible floor plan? That's your canvas-ready for whatever life needs from it.

But the story doesn't end there. Tucked away is a separate, self-contained one-bedroom cottage-perfect for guests, family, or even a creative hideaway. The cottage offers a cozy living area with an open fireplace, a galley-style kitchen, and a spacious bedroom where comfort and simplicity meet.

Around the homestead, historic outbuildings-including a storeroom and a cellar-add depth to the story. They're more than structures-they're echoes of the past, ready to be woven into your future.

This isn't just a home. It's a chapter in the long, beautiful history of Monarto, waiting for you to make it your own.
