Modern Comfort, Style, and Versatile Living Awaits

Step inside this beautifully renovated home, where modern living meets versatility. Featuring three bedrooms, each with built-in robes, and two separate living spaces, this property offers comfort and flexibility for families or those seeking a dynamic home layout.

It's evident that no expense has been spared in this impressive renovation, with premium finishes and thoughtful details throughout. The inclusion of double-glazed windows ensures energy efficiency and year-round comfort, while the bathroom boasts a heated towel rail, adding a touch of everyday luxury. Elegant subway tiles and other high-quality design choices enhance the home's modern aesthetic, creating a stylish and functional space that truly stands out.

At the heart of the home is the gourmet kitchen, a standout space complete with sliding glass windows that connect seamlessly to the expansive entertaining deck. Perfect for summer barbecues, the deck also boasts a spa bath, surrounded by pool fencing for added safety, making it an ideal spot to relax or host guests.

A spacious bathroom with a separate toilet and a large, well-appointed laundry with ample storage add to the home's practicality. Outside, the garden shed, and a charming cubby house provide additional functionality and fun for the family.

The garage, currently utilised as a teenage retreat, comes equipped with power and water, offering potential for a home-based business, such as hairdressing or beauty therapy (STCA).

Positioned on a generous block, this property is designed for both entertaining and easy family living. Don't miss your chance to secure this unique and inviting home.
