Ripe for Renovation

Welcome to this charming 2 bedroom, 1 bathroom hardiplank home, perfect for first home buyers or those with a keen eye for renovation! Step inside to find a unique interior featuring bright coloured tongue and groove walls that add character and warmth throughout.

The sunny yellow kitchen is a delightful space to cook and gather, while the whimsical pink bath brings a splash of fun. Enjoy the separate shower, toilet, and bathroom layout for added convenience. The large living room comes with a hallway door designed to help retain warmth, making the home even cozier during the cooler months. The dining space is nestled within the kitchen area.

Step into the beautiful west facing sunroom, which welcomes the afternoon sun and serves as a charming entry point. Outside, you'll find a tree-lined backyard offering plenty of privacy, while the fully fenced block provides security for pets and children. There's also a water tank at the rear to help with garden upkeep.

This home is waiting for your creative touch to freshen it up and make it your own. Don't miss this opportunity to transform this delightful space into your dream home!
