SIMPLY PERFECT!

Set at the end of a private driveway, this property is the epitome of relaxed stylish living.

This home has a spacious open plan layout and al-fresco dining designed for modern living. As expected only the finest finishes, fittings and appliances have been used throughout.

The home has a warm relaxed colour scheme, with the entrance providing access to the entire home. Moving throughout, you will discover 2 bedrooms with built-ins and a beautiful chic tiled family bathroom at one end of the home. The master bedroom has a walk-in robe and again a luxurious fully tiled bathroom with double vanities, large separate shower and wc.

The stunning free flowing spacious open plan living, dining and kitchen has a large glass slider opening to a fantastic undercover deck perfect for entertaining with family and friends.

Blessed with all day sun this home sits on an internal block of 810m² with plenty of room for a garage (STCA) and is close proximity to parks, schools and the shopping village of Sorell.

Presented in immaculate condition this home would ideally suit a busy professional couple or family looking to buy within a 25 minute drive to Hobart CBD.

If you would like to be in a suburb of rising values then call today to arrange your private viewing with exclusive listing agent Debbie Allanby.
