Classic Heritage Home (STCC)

This grand home known as Seaview House forms part of Port Augusta's rich history. A state Heritage listed building which has been used as office space for many years but we believe could be a grand residence (subject to council consent). Totaling 467m² of space - there are 2 levels to this building and 12 main rooms to utilise to your requirements. Beautiful ornate features throughout - including marble top fireplaces, and an imposing spiral staircase. There is one bathroom with 2 toilet areas in the ground level. A fully paved courtyard with a large carport allow for parking. The asking price includes any GST if applicable. Located opposite Wharflands Plaza in a busy & prominent area in our CBD. This could be your perfect classic dream home.!
