You Can See For Miles and Miles

This modern steel framed Oakford Home has the most magnificent view, from the very top of the hill.

From the balcony you can see right out to sea, there's a panoramic vista all the way from Port Noarlunga to the South Coast, this is a space that is usable all year round with cafe blinds, just ideal for entertaining and relaxing back on weekends. Views are from all around the house.

The main bedroom has a walk in wardrobe and ensuite with built in wardrobes in the 2 other bedrooms and a full modern style 3 way family bathroom. Ducted vacuum ports are installed throughout the house for easy cleaning.

This lovely open plan home has bamboo floating floors, and the modern kitchen includes a walk-in pantry, lots of cupboard and bench space with gas cooking.

Below the home is a very large workshop, ideal for any handyman and the under-house storage has room for 2 more cars making a total of 5 undercover parking.

Ducted reverse cycle air conditioning keeps the home comfortable all year round and you'll notice the electricity savings with the solar.

Just a few minutes' drive from the beach, Noarlunga Centre, Southern Expressway, train into the City and several schools.
