One of Tanunda's best locations

Completely renovated with stunning views over a picturesque, semi-rural setting, this wonderful, secluded home & beautiful gardens create an enviable lifestyle in the heart of the Barossa Valley – welcome to 13 Elizabeth Street, Tanunda.

Located in one of Tanunda's best locations, this solid brick, three bedroom (plus study or fourth bedroom) home has been meticulously renovated by the current owners and features two contemporary bathrooms (including an ensuite to the master) and a stylish laundry. Central to the home, the modern kitchen is designed for friends and family to gather round, while the home's two living areas (including a beautiful North facing sunroom with stunning views) provide separate areas for the family. All the features you'd expect from a home of this calibre are here including reverse cycle ducted air-conditioning, ceiling fans, downlights and quality, modern appliances.

Outdoors, the home continues to impress. The beautiful, low maintenance gardens create a secluded oasis in the front, while the rear yard features a stunning, decked outdoor entertainment area, perfect for special occasions, lovely gardens and a garden shed ensuring all the tools and toys are secure.

The Tanunda sporting complex (with oval, tennis courts and lawn bowls) is quite literally a stone's throw away, while Tanunda's array of restaurants, cafes and shopping are simply minute's walk along the tree-lined street. One of Tanunda's best addresses, 13 Elizabeth Street has been tightly held and now presents an opportunity for the new owner to secure a truly special home in the heart of the world renowned Barossa Valley.
