High Set Bush Outlook

This warm family home, located on a quiet and leafy street is perfectly designed for families, bringing a convenient layout, and the ideal summer backyard where families make memories together only a short stroll to bush reserve and trail walks.

High set providing some of the best bush views, the home offers a well kept residence with plenty of potential to add your own touch and make it yours. Offering a convenient layout with spacious and generously placed bedrooms and the secondary living space provides that extra casual zone. The kitchen and living area is well connected to both the balcony that soaks up the local bush view, and the outdoor alfresco that overlooks the backyard and pool area. Heading outside, the back courtyard gives a tranquil space for relaxing and the grassed area provides extra green space for kids to play, and a unique opportunity for extra off-street parking with its gated access.
