Tucked in an enticing, tree-lined street, this three bedroom Edwardian blends compelling character and spacious design with an esteemed locale. A double fronted haven, the generous home incorporates separate living and family rooms, a dining room and kitchen, complemented by an entertainer's deck, with pergola, and lush lawn. Showcasing lofty ceilings with decorative details, timber fretwork, coloured glass and period proportions, enduring beauty enhances a family friendly layout. Most bedrooms include built-in robes, with the main featuring an exquisite decorative fireplace and another including a study nook. Centrally situated, the practical bathroom is convenient to all bedrooms. Solar panels, heating, cooling, polished floorboards, a secure remote controlled carport and extra off street parking round out extensive appeal. Winningly positioned, this delightful abode is only a short walk to trains, buses, cafes, restaurants, schools and Darebin Parklands, near lively Fairfield Village, less than 7.5 kilometres to the CBD.
