Hidden Oasis

This 2-story timber home is set on a generous 1,208 m² lot, surrounded by beautifully landscaped gardens. Its unique split-level design enhances your living experience, seamlessly blending practicality with comfort. Each space invites relaxation and connection, ensuring that every corner radiates warmth and purpose.

Upon entering the home, you'll discover the kitchen /dining area and bathroom with an integrated laundry on the first level. You will descend a few steps to reach the two bedrooms and the living room. From there, you can easily access the inviting covered verandah, a perfect sanctuary for enjoying your morning coffee or gathering with loved ones in the evening.

The lower level of the property features a spacious storage room and a bathroom, ideal for transforming into your creative haven for music or art. Additional amenities include a carport, air conditioning, warm timber floorboards, and solar panels.

Located in the picturesque town of Bellingen, this property not only offers a comfortable living space but also the beauty and charm of its surroundings, making it a perfect place to live and create.
