145 Pacific Way, Tura Beach

Sitting high on the hill and overlooking Tura Beach to Short Point this solidly brick built home is ready for the most discerning buyer to create their dream coastal home. Freshly painted white and tiled throughout creating a light and bright interior.

Boasting 4 bedrooms, main with walk in robe, and 2 bathrooms makes this a fabulous family home. The main bathroom is currently under a full renovation. The ensuite is original but functional.

The kitchen is located at the front of the house capturing those waves breaking on the beach and is a great workable space with plenty of room for additional dining.

Enter through the front door and be greeted by a large tiled living/dining area with slow combustion and sliding doors onto the front deck.

There is an enclosed inground pool which is currently being freshened up ready for those hot summer days.

Terraced back yard ready for you to plant out some greenery and create a wonderful outdoor area.

A extra large double garage with loads of storage and internal access and only 400 metres walk to the beach compliments this residence.
