A Timeless & Charming Place to Call Home

This beautifully preserved home exudes charm, history, and a touch of whimsical personality.

Set on a spacious 1138sqm block, this stunning home features 3 generous bedrooms with an additional study, each full of natural light and character, with polished timber floors that flow throughout the home. The intricate stained-glass windows bring a distinct sense of individuality and warmth to the home, while the modern bathroom offers a refreshing contrast with contemporary design.

Discover the perfect solution for your storage needs with this spacious under-house area, featuring two separate rooms for your convenience. Whether you're looking to stow away seasonal items, outdoor gear, or create a dedicated workshop space, these rooms offer versatile options.

Beyond the main house, a delightful cottage-style studio at the rear provides the perfect space for a home office, guest accommodation, or creative retreat. Whether you're looking for more room to grow or a quiet escape, this flexible space has you covered.

The true highlight of this property is the enchanting garden. Lovingly curated over the past 30 years, the garden is a testament to the owner's dedication and vision. Vibrant mosaic details are scattered throughout the garden, complementing the winding brick pathways that guide you through a variety of outdoor rooms. From shaded retreats to sun-drenched spots perfect for alfresco dining, every corner of the garden tells a story of care and creativity.

This is a home that offers far more than just a place to live – it invites you to immerse yourself in a unique lifestyle filled with beauty, serenity, and a sense of history.

15 Tongue Street is a rare find in East Ipswich, offering a perfect blend of old-world charm, modern comforts, and a truly special garden that has been nurtured for decades.
