Charming C1900 Home with Stunning Views & Gardens

Step into the timeless charm of this enchanting 1900-built weatherboard home at 152 Gordons Hill Road, Lindisfarne. Boasting an expansive 196m² floor plan, this residence effortlessly blends historical elegance with modern comforts. From the original floorboards and high ceilings to the light-filled interiors, every corner of this home radiates warmth and character. The kitchen-dining-laundry area captures a cozy appeal with an open fireplace and stunning leadlight features, perfect for winter evenings. Recent improvements, including heat pumps, ensure year-round comfort, while a sunroom offers a serene spot to relax and enjoy the scenery.

With four bedrooms (or the option for a home office), the master bedroom showcases large built-in robes and spectacular views of Mt. Wellington, the Derwent River, and Hobart's surrounds. This elevated setting provides unique vistas from various points, giving each space its own scenic perspective.

Outside, a beautiful garden wraps around the home, featuring fruit trees, sandstone feature walls, and a veranda ideal for unwinding. A double remote garage, alongside ample parking for a boat, trailer, and more, ensures both convenience and space. All within a private, quiet retreat just minutes from Lindisfarne Village and an 8-minute drive to Hobart's CBD. This tightly held property is a rare find in Lindisfarne—a blend of historic charm, modern amenities, and a gorgeous garden setting with stunning views.
