WHEN LOCATION, QUALITY, AND VALUE ARE PARAMOUNT

The value on offer at this fantastic Eastside location will stand out to buyers, make sure you arrange an inspection now!

The home is spacious with soaring ceilings, Brush Box timber flooring throughout and large windows that catch plenty of natural light while framing the peaceful outlook. The recently remodelled kitchen is open to the dining area and the living room, offering views across to the adjacent farmland. Here, soaring ceilings and stunning rammed earth walls create a space that feels homely and welcoming.

The upper balcony provides a lovely outlook through to the Glasshouse Mountains and is the perfect place for an afternoon drink. There are three other deck options to allow for any possible weather conditions! The rammed earth construction controls the climate to a large degree, ensuring year-round comfort.

If self-sufficiency is important to you, you'll love the established fruit trees, including Davidson Plum, Blood Orange, Mulberries, Nashi Pear and Bananas just to name a few; raised veggie beds and chicken pen enhance this well-planned 4011m² parcel. The 6kW solar system and new solar hot water keep running costs low. Two 20,000L water tanks service the home and there is 8,000L of water to keep the abundance of fruit trees and vegetable gardens happy and healthy.

- High ceilings and polished timber floors throughout
- Recently remodelled kitchen with walk-in pantry
- Spacious living/dining area with wood fire and reverse cycle air conditioning
- Four bedrooms, two bathrooms and a multipurpose room on the upper level
- Three decks with garden outlook and upper deck with Glasshouse Mountain glimpses
- Fantastic utility area under home with internal access adjacent to double car accommodation
- 7.5 x 4.5m fully lined and powered workshop
- Fruit trees, veggie beds, lush lawn areas plus a chicken pen

Walk to town from this fantastic location, or take a scenic stroll along Mountain View Road to Mary Cairncross Reserve along the concrete paths which service this area. This is a unique property which really does offer everything!!
