Renovated with Further Improvement Potential

Concealed behind its classic and pretty façade, stands this tastefully presented home which has scope for future redesign.

Superbly positioned, this most desirable home is just moments from Newington College, and has the iconic and diverse Enmore and Newtown restaurants and bars on its doorstep.

Flooded with natural light throughout due to its northern orientation at the rear, this much-loved home owned by the same family for some 60 years, currently offers:

Three bedrooms, the main opening onto its restored lace balcony, and two with oversized built-in robes

Fully-lined attic study with its original staircase and timberwork

Elegant double living and dining room divided by its exposed original bi-fold doors, complete with fireplaces

Spacious kitchen and family room which opens onto the sunny garden

Two neat bathrooms, one on each level

North-facing landscaped garden and large entertainer's deck

Double off-street parking with remote control access

Large, external lock-up storage and separate laundry

Additional other features include a new roof and new floors
