Weekend retreat or country lifestyle awaits

Located in a peaceful bush setting, this delightful 2-bedroom cottage with cathedral ceilings and an abundance of natural light, will make you feel right at home from the moment you step inside.

Comprising 2 good sized bedrooms, again with stunning cathedral ceilings, you will love the sense of space as you retire for the night. The master bedroom also features a large walk-in-robe and sliding doors to the alfresco area.

The kitchen has been updated and features a stylish Belling cooker and black rangehood, good sized pantry and ample bench space with undercounter drawer storage. The laundry has also been cleverly incorporated into this space.

The bathroom features a luxurious bath that looks out to your very own piece of unspoiled nature.

The lounge room has a both a wood burner stove and split system so your comfort is ensured all year round.

Additionally, there is a separate dining room that can easily be converted into a study if needed.

The large block offers the opportunity for subdivision or extension (STCA) and with services, including power, town water and sewerage conveniently connected all that is left to do is unpack.
