160 Barber Street is a classic weatherboard home rich with warmth and natural light, this home oozes comfort and charm. Sitting upon spacious 1009m² R3 zoned block with a prized north facing backyard, gleaming polished floorboards, high ceilings, and picture rails combine with plush new carpet to the three bedrooms gives it a fresh appeal. Enjoy the space on offer in the bright open plan living area that's overseen by a cheerful gas-equipped kitchen with plenty of storage. Along with wood fire to keep this home toasty in winter, it also features a full-size bathroom with shower, toilet and vanity. Large laundry features a second toilet. When it's time to entertain or unwind, sit and enjoy the back patio with pergola and the northern sun on your face. The location is a real winner too. You'll love the convenience of being so close to the main street a three minute walk from the front door. This home offers both comfort and convenience in equal measure. Check out the virtual tour and contact Lauren or Olivia today to arrange your private inspection.
