The White House - Spectacular Whale Beach Retreat

Drenched in north sun and phenomenal ocean views, this residence sets a new standard for luxe livability, just a three minute stroll from the surf. A top-to-bottom redesign has created a beachside retreat that's just the way you might imagine the perfect holiday home would look and feel – crisp, white-themed interiors, premium quality appointments, fabulous entertaining options and a sunlit pool.

Bold and sophisticated, the design is as functional as it is captivating; the main living space opens entirely to wraparound decking with outdoor lounging and dining zones, while the interiors rest beneath soaring ceilings with sliding stacker doors in every direction. It's a fabulous layout for families or weekend guests with the ground level offering a fully self-contained suite, complete with lounge/dining, deck and ensuite bedroom.

The deluxe island kitchen is finished with thick stone benchtops and Miele appliances, while each of the designer bedrooms are fitted with built-ins, ceiling fans, plantation shutters and deck access; the sumptuous master suite opens out to incredible views straight up to Whale Beach's iconic surf break, known by locals as 'The Wedge'.

Additional features include two Jetmaster fireplaces, beach shower, air conditioning and the ease of level entry; exceptionally private, it presides over a commanding beachside setting less than 200m from the rockpool.
