Alpines Meets The New England

Raine and Horne, Glen Innes are thrilled to present 168 Church Street, Glen Innes to the market.

This Californian Bungalow is on a generous corner block within walking distance of Schools, the Central Business District, and other amenities.

Formidable in size the 6-bedroom, 3-bathroom home currently operates as an Airbnb and includes an eat-in kitchen serviced by a Smeg gas oven and dishwasher and an independent kitchenette. The formal dining room is adjacent to the kitchen and large living room making entertaining a breeze. The property is thoughtfully serviced by two gas-hot water systems for practicality and economical purposes.

A series of period features including bay windows, ornate ceilings, picture rails, and an original copper tub in the laundry set the tone for a charming aesthetic, coupled with the modern conveniences this home is ready to move in and enjoy.

The exterior of the home is fully fenced and well thought out with a double lock-up garage and attached carport plus an additional storage facility. For the avid gardeners, there is a combination of established fruit trees and a veggie patch, furthermore, solar panels, a tank for watering, and a chicken coop add to sustainability.
