This classic freestanding, extra-wide brick Victorian residence with a northerly rear orientation has been tastefully renovated to the highest standard evoking a calm, neutral Scandi feel. The gorgeous facade is just the beginning as you step into the long entrance hall, leading to two double bedrooms with built-in robes and decorative fireplaces, a luxurious bathroom with shower over a walk-in hip bath and heated floor, and the generous central living room with a wide arched opening leading to the kitchen with stone bench tops, integrated fridge/freezer, heated floor, built-in banquette seating and large original windows offering an outlook to the picturesque north facing rear yard. Additional features include:- Split system heating and cooling- Whitewashed timber floors- European laundry with washer/dryer combo- Off-street parking via remote lane Just moments from Victoria Avenue's shops and cafes, and only a short stroll to every amenity including the beach, Gasworks Park, trams, the South Melbourne Market, and desirable schools.
