Nestled in the township of Rosebery, this beautifully renovated four-bedroom home offers the perfect blend of modern comfort and timeless charm. Designed with practicality and style in mind, the property is sure to impress families, first-home buyers, or those seeking a peaceful retreat.

The heart of the home is the open-plan living, dining, and kitchen area, warmed by a reverse cycle air conditioner. The updated kitchen boasts gas/electric cooking, a dishwasher, ample storage, and an island bench that will remain with the property.

Three of the spacious bedrooms includes built-in wardrobes, while the fourth bedroom, located at the rear of the house, offers flexibility and convenience with an additional toilet. This fourth bedroom can also be used as a rumpus room or office space, enhancing its versatility. The updated bathroom features a separate shower and vanity, with the main toilet conveniently positioned separately.

Another highlight is the entertainment space, with large windows that flood the area with natural light and a closed wood heater to create a cozy ambiance year-round.

For car enthusiasts or those needing extra storage, the property includes a two-car carport and a large garage equipped with an additional wood heater. The home's eco-friendly credentials are bolstered by 20 solar panels, ensuring energy efficiency and cost savings.

Step outside to explore the beautifully maintained gardens that offer a private sanctuary in the backyard. At the front, a timber veranda and mature bushes along the fence line, providing plenty of privacy from the rest of the street.

Whether you're relaxing on the veranda, entertaining in the light-filled entertainment area, or enjoying the serene garden views, this home truly offers something special.
