This home boasts incredible street appeal with a flexible floorplan, making it a must-see. Situated just 1km from the beach, this property is centrally located between the seaside charm of Largs Bay, the vibrant atmosphere of Semaphore, and the historic appeal of Port Adelaide. This beautifully refurbished villa features three carpeted bedrooms off the stunning central hallway with high decorative ornate ceilings, a two-way bathroom with a double-sized luxurious spa bath, and a fabulously appointed kitchen with ample storage, a dishwasher, and gas top cooking. The flexible living spaces include a formal dining room or second lounge room, and a massive 9.3 x 4.5 m family room with ambient natural light entering through large plantation shutters and sliding doors leading out to a pitched roof entertaining area, hobby shed, and landscaped garden. Additional features include remote gates, a double-length remote garage with room for a workshop or conversion for additional living quarters, tiled living areas, ducted evaporative cooling, gas heating, a convenient second toilet, and a family-sized laundry with a walk-in storage room.
