North-to-rear facing home with versatile living on a desirable 766sqm parcel

Presenting a rare opportunity to secure a highly versatile property on a coveted 766sqm north-to-rear facing block, this residence boasts three generously sized bedrooms, a sunroom, and a dedicated study. Designed for seamless living, its interiors feature a collection of separate spaces that effortlessly transition to a manicured garden and sprawling backyard, complete with an open-air terrace ideal for serene entertaining. Showcasing timber floorboards, skylights and a highly adaptable layout, this property forms part of an exceptional opportunity to acquire two adjoining homes.

- Elevated porch extends to the living room, separate family room features a fireplace
- Sunroom extends out to an extensive open-air terrace, ideal for family entertaining
- Sprawling child-friendly backyard, low-maintenance enclosed with established trees
- Updated island kitchen is equipped with stainless steel gas appliances and storage
- Three generous bedrooms each fitted with built-in wardrobes, master bay window
- Renovated bathroom reveals floor-to-ceiling tiles and a separate soaking tub/shower
- Solar panels, air-conditioning, ceiling fans, alarm system, decorative fireplace feature
- Opportunity to develop with the neighbouring property, two properties in one line
- Extended driveway with off-street parking, lock-up garage with an additional carport
- Easy walk to Marie Bashir Public School, Strathfield Girls High School and transport links
