Nestled in the serene embrace of Gandys Forest, Yackandandah, this exquisite just under 8-acre property presents an unparalleled opportunity for lifestyle living or prime development. At its heart is a beautifully crafted three-bedroom, two-bathroom home, built by Hotondo Homes, offering modern comfort amidst a breathtaking rural backdrop.

The home boasts a thoughtful design with a spacious master suite complete with an ensuite and ample storage. The two additional bedrooms are perfect for family or guests. The open-plan living and dining area is filled with natural light, complemented by a contemporary kitchen that makes entertaining a delight.

Outside, the pristine acreage unfolds with endless potential. Whether you're dreaming of creating your own private haven or pursuing a development vision, the possibilities are as vast as the surrounding landscape.

Located just minutes from the vibrant Yackandandah township, this property combines tranquil living with easy access to local amenities. Rarely does such a unique and versatile opportunity come to market-don't miss your chance to secure this slice of prime real estate.
