Superb redesign with coastline views all the way to Manly

As one of a handful of properties boasting ocean views spanning across Box Head to Lion Island and all the way down to Manly, this beautiful home was architecturally redesigned from top to bottom in 2017. The result speaks for itself: a smartly finished, dual level design that's focused on entertaining, with multiple living areas, a sunlit saltwater pool and a well-zoned layout for parents and children. Whisper-quiet and private, it claims a lovely cul-de-sac setting just a few steps from Bouddi National Park, while within easy reach of Bells restaurant and everyday essentials in Killcare.
