Chesterfield Finest!

Situated peacefully in the highly sought after Chesterfield Park estate, in an established and quiet street, this light filled home is filled with natural light and all the modern-day living requirements. Featuring four spacious bedrooms (main with ensuite and WIR), formal lounge, rumpus room, study with in-built cabinetry, quality kitchen with 900mm cooking and WIP, ducted heating and cooling, ample storage throughout and a study with in-built cabinetry ideal for all the working from home arrangements.

Outside features a private and peaceful alfresco area overlooking the established and low maintenance rear yard, complete with professional landscaping that provides plenty of room for shedding or even your desired pool.

Additional features include double lock up garage with internal access, stunning raked ceilings, dishwasher and a freshly painted roof.

So, if you are searching for a sleek and modern home this property will not disappoint, being convenient for families and retirees, with close proximity to St Angelas Primary school and local parks and plans for a shopping precinct in the estate in the near future, this home will not only provide comfort, but convenience as well!
