A beautiful family home where period charm joins modern comfort in a highly sought after location, walking distance from Newport's cafes, boutiques, pubs and the glorious waterfront esplanade, and just 10km from the city. Situated in the thriving inner-west, and close to the Newport train station and great schools, this four bedroom, two bathroom home features light filled open plan living with hardwood floors, floor to ceiling windows, and glass doors connecting the inside to the outside of this warm family home. A leafy front garden and wooden deck welcome you into this home, where a beautiful period hallway sets the tone. Two spacious bedrooms at the entry enjoy views of the lush garden, showcasing polished floorboards and classic high ceilings. Further up the hallway leads to the third bedroom with a built in study nook and a versatile fourth bedroom or study. The presence of two stylishly appointed modern bathrooms compliments the home, while a separate laundry ensures practical convenience is also a feature of this home. The hallway opens up into the open plan, well appointed kitchen, dining and living area that is bathed in natural light and the perfect place for family and friends to gather. Ducted Heating, cooling and off street parking are also features of this beautiful home. Securing this sensational address is an investment in lifestyle and the future. Sunrise walks along the esplanade, Saturday morning breakfasts at your local cafe or Sunday afternoons at the Newport Junction Hotel with the convenience of public transport, parks and good schools all await.
