Sophisticated spaces with city skyline views literally less than a moment The Strand and the water the profile, proportions and position of this stunning residence form a completely irresistible combination. A cul-de-sac setting off Stevedore Street enhances the sense of exclusivity that defines a sublime dual level design, commencing with three ground floor bedrooms and two beautiful bathrooms including a main bedroom distinguished by an elegant ensuite space, bright natural light and independent access to a deck and inviting garden dimensions. A central retreat with its own outdoor access complements the accommodation and creates a refined introduction to the alluring living and dining areas above, where glass doors slide aside to the balcony's spectacular sights of the bay, boats and the city beyond. The truly brilliant kitchen's superb stone island, dual ovens, integrated fridge and freezer and a butler's pantry deliver benchmark beauty to a home of unforgettable appeal, with timber floors, zoned heating/cooling, a fabulous modular stone fire-place and secure garage.
