Dual Living Opportunity

This large home perched in an elevated position to capture the breathtaking views of the coast enjoys the convenience of dual living. On the main floor is the hub of the home with open plan living, dining and kitchen areas with two open balconies and one closed for all year round entertaining. The bathroom on this level is luxurious to say the least and enjoys dual access. The top level encompasses an extra living area, two bedrooms and a bathroom. This level also has a closed balcony currently with spa and sauna. The ground level has a workshop and a fully self-contained one-bedroom unit complete with kitchen, bathroom, bedroom and lounge area. This would make a great Air BnB opportunity or even put a long term tenant in place for extra income. There are plenty of parking options with a driveway circling around the home and an undercover carport at the rear. This is a substantial home that needs to be seen to be believed.
